WESTERN N. C. CONFERENCE.

Prominent Men Address the Body.

REPORTS OF EDUCATIONAL WORK

Representatives of the Various Societies, Papers, etc., Connected With the Work of the Conference are Presented—Notes.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 18.—The second session of the Conference opened at 9 o'clock this morning, Bishop Key in the chair.

Religious service was conducted by Rev. Frank Siler, a recent transfer from the Missouri Conference.

The Conference was called to order and the Secretary read the names of absentees at the first session. The minutes of the first session were read and approved.

Rev. W. D. Akers, of the Holston Conference, Dr. T. H. Law, agent of American Bible Society, and D. M. Smith, agent of the Methodist Publishing House, were introduced to the body.

Second question was called: "Who remain on trial?" Walter L. Nicholson, Gilbert T. Rowe, Chas. A. Wood, R. S. Nowie, having passed their examination, were continued on trial and advanced to the class of the second year.

Geo. J. Owen, Seymour Taylor, and Edworth N. Crowder, having failed to pass an approved examination, were continued in the class of the first year. Plato T. Durham was discontinued at his own request that he might attend school. Victor L. Marsh was not present to pass his examination, being a student at Randolph-Macon College, and was continued on trial.

Rev. T. F. Glenn, of the Holston Conference, N. M. Lawrence, Supt. of Oxford Orphan Asylum, Dr. J. C. Kilgo, President of Trinity College, Dr. T. N. Ivey, of the North Carolina Advocate and A. A. Jones, President of the Asheville Female College, were introduced to the Conference.

Dr. E. E. Hoss, editor of the Nashville Advocate, was introduced to the Conference and spoke at length in the interest of the paper he represents.

The Secretary read a report from President Peacock, of the Greensboro Female College, showing a very gratifying condition of the school. The number of students at the College is larger at present than it has been in several years.

Dr. J. C. Kilgo read a report of Trinity College.

Dr. T. H. Law, Superintendent of the American Bible Society for North and South Carolina, presented the cause he represents to the Conference.

After announcements were made, the Conference adjourned to meet tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

NOTES ON THE CONFERENCE.

The delegates to the General Conference were elected today at 11 o'clock.

Rev. J.H. Fitzgerald will soon leave for his new field of labor at Durango, Mexico. The Conference hates to part with so valuable a man. He will do fine work anywhere.

The Epworth League Board will hold its anniversary tonight in Central church at 7:30 o'clock. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. Frank Siler and Dr. T. N. Ivey.

Dr. E. E. Hoss preached a fine sermon in Central church this evening at 3:30 o'clock.

W. C. T. U. Art Display.

It has often been said that a postponed entertaiment is never a success, but the ladies of the W. C. T. U. hope to prove this statement a mistake. On the 9th and 10th of December they will have not only an exhibit of 50 beautiful engravings, but also of paintings of all kinds, and embroidery. Ladies in other towns have written, asking that they may exhibit paintings and embroidery, and with the talent of our own home artists displayed, the people of Greensboro may expect a splendid exhibition. MRS. W. H. OSBORN.

NEWSY NOTES

From Our Nearby Sister City, High Point—A Fire.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Nov. 19, '97.

This morning about 2:30 o'clock the peaceful slumbers of our citizens were disturbed by the shooting of guns and the blowing of whistles, the usual alarms given for fire, and in a short time hundreds of voices were yelling fire. The building was what is known as the College, which has been used for school purposes for many years, and was, before the war, the leading educational institution in this section of the state. During the war the building was used as a hospital for confederate soldiers. After the war the school was re-established, but proved unprofitable and the building was then converted into a hotel, but this, too, was soon abandoned. Four years ago Prof. F. M. Weatherly leased it for school purposes, which continued until last June, when the graded school was established. The building, for the past twelve years, has belonged to Geo. T. Leach, who was using it for a residence at the time of the fire. The insurance is unknown.

The festival given last night by the Presbyterian church was a success in every particular. The refreshments were served in excellent style and were greatly in demand.

Rev. J. O. Alderman will preach in the Baptist church Sunday—morning and night.

The walls, encasing the boiler at the Alma furniture company gave way this morning, causing a temporary shut down.

Extensive preparations are being made in anticipation of conference next week.

RHODES MERRYMAKERS.

To Play Three Nights Engagement at The Academy of Music.

Rhodes' Merrymakers commenced a week's engagement at the Academy last evening presenting as their opening bill a rollicking farce comedy in four acts entitled "A Midnight Frolic" The piece from its many surprising and ludicious situations and in the hands of such competent people as those engaged in its presentation could not fail to give satisfaction while as a laugh producer it proved an entire success. One of the largest audiences of the season was in attendance and laughter and applause were in evidence throughout the performance. All the players were good and especially was this the case with Pete Raymond, who in the character of Sam Elewyn, a married man, was very fine; Holmes as Fred Bellamy, A. M. M. Blackaler as Captain Katiskill and Nat Leffing as Basco Blithers Professor of Penmanship, gave a good account of themselves and were well received.

The fourth act consisted of a number of side-splitting specialties singing and dancing, baton twirling by Frank B. Rhodes, champion drum major of the world formerly of Cleveland's minstrels, and with handsome stage setting and calcium effects was one of the most attractive features of the show while a medley by the company closed one of the very best performances ever given by popular price company in this city. Tonight "A Factory Girl," will be presented and all lovers of clever acting and wholesome comedy should not fail to attend these performances as The Merrymakers are deserving of their heartiest support.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

At Academy of Music here, Nov. 25th, 26th and 27th. Popular prices, 10, 20 and 30cts.

Oyster Supper Last Night.

THE TELEGRAM congratulates the good ladies of Centenary church on the success of their oyster supper at the Groome building last night. The attendance was very good, considering the fact that the fire company had an oyster supper at their engine house at the same time. The receipts amounted to about $40.

The refreshments were unanimously adjudged to be first-class. Right here we desire to add that seldom, if ever, have we tasted or seen finer oysters than were served there. Upon inquiry we learned that they were from our own North Carlina waters, and were furnished from the cultivated oyster beds of Mr. C. S. Wallace, at Morehead City. They were delicious, large, fat and juicy, far superior to those usually served at oyster saloons.

There was a good deal of merriment created over the apple contest—eating an apple suspended by a string. Frank Smith, son of Mr. I. N. Smith, succeeded in eating the apple and was awarded the free supper.

GEN. WEYLER SQUARES HIMSELF

The Great Cloak-Makers Strike Officially Closed in Favor of the Strikers—Dr. Nansen Will Not Explore Further.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

San Francisco, Nov. 19.—A southwest hurricane is raging along the coast from Eureka to Cape Flattery, having moved from Oregon. The steamers State of California, President, Umotilla, and Tuckee are overdue. The Humboldt, after considerable, trouble succeeded in reaching port at Eureka.

WEYLER EXPLAINS HIMSELF.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, Nov. 19—The statements made by General Weyler to Captain-General Gamarra upon his arrival at Corunna yesterday are declared official circles here to be satisfactory to the government. It is improbable that any proceedings will be taken against him on account of his acts and utterances while in Cuba.

GARMENT MAKERS WIN.

New York, Nov. 19.—The largest strike among garment makers that has ever occurred in this city was officially closed in favor of the strikers today at the cloakmakers headquarters. Eight thousand men and girls who have been on a strke since midsummer started to work again.

HAS NO PLANS FOR THE FUTURE.

Milwaukee, Nov. 19—Dr. Nansen, the Arctic explorer, who is lecturing here, says the report sent out from Christiana that his next arctic expedition has been completed in its arrangements, is not true. He has, as yet, no plans for the future.

BRUTALLY TREATED BY OFFICERS

Handcuffed and Jerked About Until a Blood Vessel was Ruptured.

The Winston Journal gives a lively account of an arrest in that city of ex-Chief of Police Bradford. Bradford, it seems, had beat a fakir at his own game and the fakir had him arrested. He was bound over to court in a $25 bond. He was sent out, escorted by two officers, to secure bondsmen. His treatment is thus described by the Journal:

They all started to McArthur & Zeigler's livery stables. Passing by Salmon's saloon Bradford told White and Frazier that he believed he would go in and call McArthur up over the phone. The officers uttered some oaths and said he should do nothing of the kind while in their charge. They at once put the chains on Bradford's wrists and began to pull and drag him down the alley toward Liberty street. One pulled him forward and the other pulled him back, lacerating and bruising his wrists badly and in fact severing one of the blood vessels in his left arm. On the way down the amount of the bond was tendered in money two or three times by two or three different parties, but intent on taking their victim to jail they paid no attention to the tendered cash bond.

In this horrible and revolting way they reached the jail to find a big crowd of representative citizens awaiting them. The crowd guarded the jail door, determined not to let them incarcerate the man whom they had learned to love because of his long faithful services as a public officer. The officers were thus forced to accept the bond, and forty dollars in cash was put up as collateral for a twenty-five dollar bond.

The scene at the jail was a wild one. The crowd was desperate and ready to do almost anything. White drew a gun, when surrounded by indignant citizens, and threatened to use it.

A COLORED TRAGEDY.

Shot His Intended and Then Put a Bullet into Himself.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 19—Edward D. Hayes, a young colored medical student shot and instantly killed himself at the home of his sweetheart on Elm street, north west this morning, after wounding the girl who had promised to become his wife.

STRONG ARGUMENT

In Favor of Good Roads—Cheaper Than Freight Rates.

The public generally are becoming more interested on the subject of good roads and road making. Read the following from a Davidson correspondent of the Charlotte News. If cotton can be hauled with teams cheaper than the railroads can haul it, why not apply the same course of reasoning to all farm products?

With good roads, such as Mecklenburg has, the cost to the farmer, of marketing his products, would be diminished more than one-half. With the same team now required to carry two bales of cotton to market, four and five can be easily carried.

Owing to the rate of freight on the railroad the merchants here are having their cotton hauled to Charlotte on wagons; and owiug to the good roads of Mecklenburg, the owners of the team can afford to haul cotton cheaper than the railroad company. This is another object lesson in favor of good public roads. It is also a pretty strong argument in favor of "low tariff for revenue." But that is too big a subject for me to tackle here. In fact, I have found out that I understand the tariff question just about as well as the colored preacher did eternity: "My colored friends, you don't understand the meaning of that word nor me either hardly." But we have plenty of political and religious critics who think they understand both these terms. When they grow a little older and learn a little more they will find that they don't know quite so much.

BUTLER'S LITTLE BLUFF.

He Fooled Some of the People, But Not Quite All of Them.

Senator Butler yesterday worked a nice little bluff on a crowd at the depot waiting for the morning train. The Senator was going off on the east bound Southern train. There had been much said about pass-toters and some people were wondering what the Senator was going to do about it. He came in hurriedly with his bag, stepped up to the Southern Railway ticket window, took out a roll of money, handed over a $5 bill to the agent with a request to change it. While the agent was doing this the Senator shifted some other change from one pocket to another; which to the crowd behind him, who could hear nothing of what passed, looked like he was putting a ticket in his pocket. Then he raked in the $5 in change, picked up his bag and hurried toward the train.

"And so the Senator is buying a ticket," said several in the crowd—but he did nothing of the kind—he rode on his pass.

Who next?—News and Observer.

STYLISH WEDDING.

Ex-Congressman Settle, and Miss Potter of Wilmington.

At high noon yesterday St. James Episcopal church was the scene of the most brilliant and fashionable wedding that ever occurred in Wilmington, says the Messenger.

Hon. Thomas Settle, of Greensboro, was the groom and Miss Eliza A. Potter, one of the loveliest and most popular members of Wilmington society, step-daughter of Colonel John Wilder Atkinson, was the bride.

The church decorations were very handsome and consisted of palms and white chrysanthemums. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Strange, the rector.

The bridal couple left Wilmington at 7:15 last night for Washington and from they will take a northern tour.

A BUNGLED EXECUTION.

A Murderer Roasted Instead of Killed by the Current.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Columbus, O., Nov. 19.—Albert Frantz, the murderer of Bessie Little, was electrocuted early this morning. Owing to the bad adjustment of the apparatus, Frantz was not killed until the current had been turned on five times.

Smoke arose from his body and the room was filled with the odor of the burning flesh. Frantz declared his innocence in his last appeal to the governor.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN LONDON

The Fire is Beyond Control And Spreading.

DAMAGE TEN MILLION DOLLARS

The Whole Fire Department Summoned and Panic Prevails-Flames Sweeping Toward General Post Office Under Strong Wind.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Nov. 19—The most extensive fire that London has had in ten years was started about one o'clock this afternoon in Oppenheimer's paper factory near Aldersgate street. The flames spread with great rapidity to Wells, Jewin and Hamsell streets and and Nicholls square.

At three o'clock twenty large warehouses were burning and the fire was beyond control and spreading in all directions. The entire fire department has been summoned and a serious panic prevails in the sections surrounding the burning buildings.

The flames have already penetrated to within a short distance of the general post-office and a strong wind is blowing in that direction.

Four o'clock—The damage is now estimated at over two million pounds and the flames are not yet under control.

Five o'clock—More than fifty buildings have been burned. The fire is now checked on three sides but is still making progress northward in a wedge shaped line. The fire is supposed to have started from an explosion of gas in the warehouse on Hamsell street.

BY THE DYNAMITE ROUTE.

Mill Wrecked and Crops Destroyed by the Floods.

Wrighsville, Ga., Nov. 18.—The Cypress mills and milldam at this place were blown up with dynamite. The property is owned by W. G. Samons, a wealthy planter.

The mill was among the most valuable in South Georgia, and the mill pond covered near one hundred acres. A heavy charge of dynamite was exploded in the rock of the dam and the mill was destroyed by the flying stones.

The waters of the pond burst forth and inundated the low lands adjacent, ruining crops and sweeping away many cabins of negroes.

The pond was a renowned fishing resort, and the path of the flood is today marked by dead fish. There is no clue to the person that caused the explosion.

MRS. NACK'S STORIES CONFLICT.

It is Believed that She Knows Where Guldensuppe's Head Is.

New York, Nov. 18.—Mrs. Nack now declines to talk on the Guldensuppe murder without the aid of an interpreter. The missing head is being searched for, and it is believed Mrs. Nack knows where it it. Her statement anent its disposition have been conflicting. She claims the discrepancies arose through her imperfect knowlege of English.

It is believed that the new trial will not extend beyond ten days from Monday, and it may be concluded within the week.

Particular attention has been given by the sheriff to the physical condition and medical history of the 160 talesmen summoned for jury selection.

Kalulani in Honolulu.

Honolulu, Nov. 11, via San Francisco, Nov. 18.—Princess Kaiulani's reception on November 9th was not flattering. Instead of the great demonstration that the government expected, only 400 or 500 persons were gathered at the pier, most of whom were whites. There were no shouts of welcome. Only one old Kanaka woman raised her voice in a chant of praise for the safe return of the Princess, but none of the other natives joined in.

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

Our good neighbor, the Winston Republican, continues to receive the election returns sandwiched with slices of specially prepared consolation.

New York has a big gun preacher named Slicer. The gentleman ought to be either a soldier or a latter day politician instead of a preacher.

The Citizen's Union declares that it has become a fixture in New York politics. The sad part of it is that its candidates partake of the same properties when a race is on.

If affairs go on as at present the New York Journal may soon have an opportunity to score another scoup by instructing its rescue corps to ease General Blanco out of Havana.

New York will doubtless be humbly grateful for Mr. Croker's announcement that he will lend it the cheering sunshine of his presence until spring calls him to England and his horses.

If not exaggerated Winston was the scene of one of the most brutal instances of maltreatment of a private citizen by public officers recorded in the state. Such men are unfit to live in a civilized community, much less to act in a public capacity. Kick them out.

The so-called "sound money league" of Maryland is patting itself on the back over the defeat of Gorman and claiming all the glory. The league is very nearly all sound and money. You could pack the brains of the whole aggregation in Gorman's cranium and throw in the gray matter of his probable successor to boot.

It is hardly necessary to put further emphasis upon the opportunity offered Greensboro by the Southern Railway to secure some excellent advertising without cost. The paltry amount necessary to secure the photographs from which the cuts are made is not worth consideration. We wish merely to call the attention of our business men to the fact that the time is limited and the matter should be attended to at once. It may mean thousands of dollars in new industries here and the chance should be utilized promptly. Have your building photographed and send a copy to President Hunter at once. Town pride and business judgement demand it jointly.

Mr. Marion Butler says that he did not say that white democrats would hire negroes to commit assault on white women he only said that "if necessary" they would do so. Since it is not or has not been "necessary" white men stand accused of sympathizing with such crimes only. They should be very grateful to Mr. Marion Butler for the concession. We give the correction just as we gave the assertion. Mr. Butler says that before commenting on the passage papers should have asked him if it was correctly reported. The gentleman's long silence as well as his past career justified belief that he was correctly reported. His correction given at the eleventh hour is a virtual admission.

One of the republican leaders in Ohio has said it is a question of choosing the downfall of Mark Hanna or the downfall of the republican party. The remark is true and timely. No political party in this country can stand the predominance and control of men of the Mark Hanna stripe. He is insupportable and his election to the Senate will cost the republican party a half million votes in 1900. And it will cost them largely in doubtful States. It is unfortunate when men become issues but Mark Hanna is becoming a national issue and the nation has had enough of him. The republican party endorses him at its peril.

THE TELEGRAM asserted sometime since that it was bad politics and bad patriotism to make the negro the issue in this State. It is more and more convinced as time passes that the assertion was justified by the facts. There is neither wisdom nor justice in raising a hue and cry against the negro who is merely weak, credulous and ignorant. He deserves sympathy rather than persecution. It is not a battle to our taste. Those who wish to strike the man who has neither the opportunity nor strength to defend himself are welcome to all of that poor pastime that is available. We will none of it. The negro is ignorant and and therefore unfit to rule. What ruling he does is by the connivance and help of white men more astute than he. The white man must rule because his interests and the welfare of the negro alike demand it. The negro is not responsible for the present disgraceful regine; he is not even the most disgraceful part of it. Put the blame where it belongs. Cleanliness and competency, not color, is the issue.

THE NEXT CAMPAIGN

State Democratic Convention Will Endorse Chicago Platform of '96.

The next state democratic convention will endorse in its entirety the Chicago platform of 1896. It will adopt a platform on state issues that will satisfy every white man in North Carolina who has voted the democratic ticket in any election during the last five years, and who honestly wishes a return to decent government.

It will ratify the nominations for superior court judges, made by the conventions of the several districts in which terms of the judges expire, and these will be the only candidates nominated and voted for in the state at large.

There will be nothing about fusion in the platform. It will include a strong and direct appeal to the white manhood of North Carolina, and a condial invitation to those who have strayed from the fold to come back to the grand old democratic party and join hands with it in a supreme effort to rescue our state from misrule and corruption.

This is the outlook as viewed by the Star.—Wilmington Star.

Are You Subject to Attacks of COLIC?

If So, There is No Need to Suffer.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

WILL CURE YOU

For several years I had been sub ject to severe attacks of cramp colic. Sometimes they would last me an hour and hardly a week passed that I did not have several attacks. I tried everything that was suggested, but found no relief. During these attacks the muscles of the arm and leg were terribly drawn and the whole body was cramped. I was advised to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, which gave me relief at once, but not until I had taken two dozen bottles was I entirely cured. It was eight years ago since I took the remedy, and I have not had a touch of the trouble since.

NEGRO'S WORST FOE.

CONSUMPTION AND KINDRED DISEASES KILL MANY COLORED PEOPLE.

Statistics That Show the Principal Causes of the High Death Rate — Afro-Americans Peculiarly Susceptible to Pulmonary Complaints.

The last census is hopelessly inaccurate in the matter of a correct enumeration of the population. While it gives something like 7,000,000 Afro-Americans, the opinion is that the number is nearer 10,000,000.

Until very recently we were quite in ignorance of how these 7,000,000 Afro-Americans live, what they do, their health conditions, and the like. There was much wild speculation, but no trustworthy data upon which to base conclusions. This is no longer true. The experiment stations of the United States department of agriculture are informing us in bulletins, regularly issued, of the kind, quality and amount of food Afro-Americans consume in the rural districts of the south. The Johns Hopkins university at Baltimore has had investigated their farm holdings and mortgage indebtedness, the Atlanta university is conducting a systematic investigation into their social and physical condition in the cities, and the Hampton and Tuskegee conferences, held annually, throw a flood of light on the subject by giving the farmers themselves an opportunity to testify as to their condition and prospects. The federal department of labor is also taking a hand in the matter and has issued several helpful bulletins.

With all these agents actively at work gathering the facts and putting them into handy reference form, we shall soon know vastly more about the Afro-Americans of the southern cities and rural districts than we do about the white population of the same section—indeed, that is almost the case now.

Atlanta university has issued a pamphlet embodying the proceedings of the second conference for the study of problems concerning negro city life, dealing especially with the social and physical condition of negroes in cities. The statistics gathered in this publication and the opinions and conclusions advanced have the merit of having been gathered and put forward by Afro-American graduates of Atlanta university and other Afro-American schools of higher learning. The nature, scope and thoroughness with which the work was performed are worthy of notice here.

In the course of these manifold investigations it has been discovered and pointed out that the negro has much to fear from the death rate and the diseases producing it.

L. M. Henshaw of Washington has collated and analyzed the vital statistics of Atlanta, Baltimore, Charleston, Memphis and Richmond. Mr. Henshaw finds that in the five cities covered by his investigations the excessive mortality of Afro-Americans was due to pulmonary, scrofulous and infantile diseases. He says that these principal causes of excessive mortality are identical in all the large cities. He therefore makes the following table for Charleston, Memphis and Richmond combined and gives the average death rate per 10,000 for a period of 15 years, from 1881 to 1895:

	White.	Color'd.	Per cent excess of color'd.
Consumption and pneumonia	82.76	75.48	130.4
Typhoid, malaria, scarlet fever and diarrhea	20.16	26.22	30.0
Cholera infantum, convulsions and stillborn	14.87	89.43	165.1
Scrofula, etc	.81	4.72	482.7

The two principal causes of death, as shown in this table and in all others contained in the report, are consumption and pneumonia, while the waste of child life on the part of both races, it is shown, is simply appalling. That consumption has already become the worst enemy of the Afro-American race is shown by the following tables, showing the death rate per 10,000 for the five cities under consideration:

	White.	Color'd.	Per cent excess of color'd.

Mr. Hershaw, in commenting on these tables, says, "It is to be seen that in all of the cities the death rate for consumption is high among the colored people, the lowest rate being 34.74 per 10,000 in Richmond and the highest 72.20, in Charleston."

There is reason for great concern and anxiety as to the excessive prevalence of this disease among the colored people. Unless checked and reduced to a normal state it may, in the course of years, be a deciding factor in the ultimate fate of the race. The prevalence of tubercular and scrofulous diseases—consumption, scrofula and leprosy—has caused the weaker races of the earth to succumb before the rising tide of Christian civilization.—T. Thomas Fortune in New York Sun.

Dog Kills a Shark.

Thousands of bathers and strollers on the board walk at Atlantic City witnessed a battle between a setter dog and a shark over four feet in length. The dog was swimming just beyond the breakers when he was attacked by the shark. The dog soon became the aggressor, and little by little he gained the ascendency. He killed the shark and dragged it ashore. Then he trotted away.

Land Sale

By virtue of a mortgage deed executed by John Bethei and wife Fannie Bethel, on the 28th day of October, 1896, to J. W. Kerr, (since dead) and in consequence of a failure to pay the debt secured in said mortgage, I will sell to the highest bidder, for cash, at the court house door in Greensboro, N. C., on Saturday, December 4th, 1897, the lands described in said mortgage, butted and bounded as follows:

Beginning on northeast corner of street on Main street leading to Greensboro, thence north 60 degrees east along westerly side of said street 10 1-3 poles, thence north 87 degrees west 14 1-2 poles, thence south 30 degrees west 10 1-6 poles to north side of said street, thence 87 degrees east with said street 14 poles to the beginning, containing one acre, more or less. There is reserved from this sale the lot out of this boundary heretofore sold to Frank Fields.

The above mortgage is recorded in book 102, page 707, in the office of the register of deeds, Nov. 4, 1897.

FROM FOREIGN LANDS.

Interesting Topics That Engross the Attention of Europe.

Although President Faure's life has several times been attempted and is known to be threatened at the present moment by the anarchists, yet he declined to permit any members of the French police or Parisian detective force to accompany him to St. Petersburg, declaring that it would constitute a slur cast upon the hospitality of the czar and of the Muscovite nation. In this he differs from Emperor William, who during his stay in the Russian capital a fortnight previously was guarded by a perfect horde of Berlin police officers, although no attempt has ever yet been made upon his life or his existence in any way menaced.

English consular reports just issued in London call attention once more to the enormous amount of Belgian, French and German capital that has been invested in industrial enterprises in Russia during the last three years. Forty million dollars of Belgian money has been invested in iron works in Poland alone and is already yielding a return of 40 per cent. For some reason or other English and American capitalists are holding back, declining to take advantage of the opportunities placed at their disposal, although Russia is in the very infancy of its industrial development and will require foreign help in this respect for a long time to come.

The clearance sale of the British admiralty has now begun, and faded troopships, superannuated cruisers and obsolete torpedo boats are being offered to the highest bidder at absurd rates. Among the number ate the Bacchante, a cruiser of nearly 3,000 tons, in which the Duke of York and his elder brother, the late Duke of Clarence, circumnavigated the globe. Another, the Canada, was one of the earliest cruisers to have an armor deck. The oldest of the vessels is the Vengeance, a wooden battleship armed with 84 guns and representing the type of man-of-war that figured in the battle of Trafalgar and other great naval conflicts in the early part of the century.

While in France the population is according to some stationary and according to others diminishing in size, the neighboring kingdom of Belgium is giving evidence of an altogether phenomenal growth. Official statistics just issued at Brussels show that the population has more than doubled during the century, while during the same period cities and towns have tripled and quadrupled their population, Antwerp having grown no less than 883 per cent since 1860.

President Kruger's sudden and totally unlooked for declaration to the effect that his government absolutely declines to recognize the suzerainty of Great Britain over the Transvaal, an announcement all the more unexpected by reason of his recent demonstrations of good will toward the English, may be accounted for by the exasperation which has been caused among the Boers by the news that Dr. Jameson has returned to Africa and that he is once more employed in an official capacity by the Chartered company, having been appointed to the command of the force which has just been dispatched from Salisbury against the witch doctor Kenlbin. At the time when the doctor was turned over by the Boers to the British authorities, immediately after the Transvaal raid, it was expressly stipulated that he should under no circumstances be permitted by the English government to return to South Africa, and the fact that he should be not only back there, but actually in command of an armed force, is naturally regarded as a gross breach of faith.

A painful impression has been created at Madrid by the refusal of Don Romero Robledo, the boss of the Conservative machine in Spain, to consent to any kind of conciliation with the important faction of dissident Conservatives under Senor Silvelas, the most honest and patriotic statesman in the kingdom, who has arrayed under his political banner men such as Martinez Campos, Captain General Blanco, and, in fact, all those Conservatives who are opposed to political corruption and in favor of a humane and sensible treatment of Cuba, as well as of the Philippine islands. A reconciliation between the two divided factions of the Conservative party would have strengthened the latter, as well as assured its continuance in office, whereas the continuance of the split will result in the overthrow of the cabinet.

That the lot of the sailor in the British mercantile marine is no bed of roses is shown by a report of the government board of trade just issued in London and according to which the number of cases of desertion during the 12 months which have just been brought to a close exceeds 14,000. With the exception of a few hundreds only, all these deserting seamen were what are known as long voyage men, and their abandonment of their ships in some foreign port, usually an American one, meant to them not only the sacrifice of character, with the certainty of imprisonment in the event of recapture either at home or abroad, but likewise the loss of all accumulation of pay, which is only given to the men on completing the time for which they have shipped. The board of trade calculates that, estimating the accumulated pay of each deserting sailor at a minimum average of $50, nearly $750,000 is thus lost to the sailors and to their families at home, the money, of course, remaining in the hands of their employers. The English government now proposes to devise means by which shipowners and ship masters who often brutally treat their men with the express object of inducing them to desert without demanding their pay should be forced to disgorge all such accumulations of wages for the benefit of the nearest relatives of the deserters. —New York Tribune.

Blanco Disappointed.

Havana, Cuba, (via Key West, Fla.) Nov. 18.—There is no sign yet of the full text of the promised Cuban reforms, and in consequence the hopes of the most optimistic autonomist are dwindling.

The fault lies not with General Blanco. There is every reason to believe that his promises on arrival were made in good faith. He is evidently deeply incensed at the false position in which he is placed.

It is stated on the highest authority that General Blanco cabled a day or two ago to Madrid, stating that General Weyler had deceived him as to the condition of the army, and that the government had misled him regarding its sincerity in promising autonomy. He broadly hinted that he felt inclined to ask to be relieved.

The damage suit of Col. John R. Beasley against Chief Justice Snodgrass, of the Tennessee Supreme Court, for the shooting of the Colonel by Judge Snodgrass, was decided in favor of the chief justice.

Fritz Meyer, already convicted of the murder of a policeman in a Catholic church in New York, confessed to his daughter that he and a companion killed the old bell-ringer of a Catholic church in Brooklyn last summer.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

THOSE TIMES HAVE PASSED.

There is No Need For The Little Boys Going in Rags Now.

Once upon a time there was a little boy who didn't have any father or mother, and he was a very poor little boy, and he had to work for his living, though he was only seven years old.

We did not have any Orphan Asylums then, so this little fellow had no one to look after his comfort and he was allowed so little for his services that he was not able to buy the necessary clothing for winter.

This little fellow had to get out early in the morning when it was cold, and he had nothing to keep his little body warm with but a thin calico bodice and a little cotton coat.

The consequence of this exposure was, at the age of 9 years this little fellow had contracted a deep cold, and he died of consumption.

Every parent is anxious that their boy should grow up strong. To do this their little bodies should be properly nourished, and clothed in a suit of our Fleece Lined Underwear. Price, $1.00 per suit. Ages, 6 to 18.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Harry Shaw, of Charlotte, was at the McAdoo.

Gen. J. D. Glenn went to Danville this morning.

The work of painting the Fields factory building is greatly improving its appearance.

Do you ever buy oysters? If so, get the best. Read Andrew's two pointers on first page.

Mis Ella Green, of Fayetteville, is in the city spending a few days with the family of Mr. W. G. Crutchfield.

A. R. Wright, of the firm of Casey & Wright, Winston, was in the city today and went north on the noon train.

W. C. Bain, the contractor, is repairing the residence of Mrs. J. B. Fields, on West Washington street, next to the Baptist church.

The new bicycle store of Garland Daniel, in the McAdoo building, is almost ready to invite callers. It will be one of the handsomest in the state.

A large crowd should go out and see the foot ball game between Oak Ridge and Greensboro tomorrow afternoon. Bicycles will be admitted to the grounds.

Rev. J. O. Guthrie, of Raleigh, spent last night and this morning in the city. He was returning from Asheville, where he attended the opening days of conference.

The Odd Fellows here are getting up a handsome box for the orphans at the Oxford Asylum for Thanksgiving day. Open your purse and heart and help to fill the box.

The annual Thanksgiving sermon to the Jr. O. U. A. M., will be preached at the First Baptist church next Sunday night by the pastor of that church, Rev. Livingston Johnson.

Mr. Settle Dockery, a rising young attorney and newspaper man accompanied by Mr. Morrison are spending the day in the city. THE TELEGRAM enjoyed a call from the gentlemen.

The mammoth and up-to-date grocers, J. W. Scott & Co., advertise everything for Thanksgiving in their space today. Read it, and see if it is not a layout fit to give thanks for.

The contract has just been closed with Messrs. Pitts & Bain for the erection of a new residence in the western part of the city, just beyond the elegant home of Mr. Branch Merrimon.

The building in the rear of S. G. Hodgin & Co., for D. R. Huffines' bottling works is about completed. The brick work and roofing is all done and it will soon be ready for occupancy.

The steam fire engine company gave their members and lady friends an oyster supper at their engine house last night. It was a pleasant evening spent with the fire laddies and the occasion was greatly enjoyed.

We ask your attention to the new ad in the editorial page penny column today of Messrs. Thacker & Brockmann. They are advertising shoes today. Watch their space for the changes they will present. They will talk about other goods in a few days.

The game of football between Oak Ridge and Greensboro teams, at Athletic Park, tomorrow afternoon, will be the last game played here this season by Greensboro, and will be the last the team will play before the Thanksgiving game with Charlotte. Admission, 25 cents; children, 10 cents.

Did you notice THE TELEGRAM'S new and attrative sign? The work was executed by C. H. Doxsee, who has done some very handsome work on glass show windows in the city, at Clegg's, Workman's, Garland Daniel's, Stribling's and numerous other places. He will not remain here long. See him at once if you want a sign. His work is sufficient recommendation.

"GOOD LUCK."

An Immense Shipment Over the Southern Railway.

Today a solid train of twenty-seven cars loaded with "Good Luck" baking powder rolled into Greensboro over the Southern railway. They were going to various points, some to Macon, Montgomery, Atlanta, Pensacola, Jacksonville, Charlotte, Wilmington and Norfolk and other places.

When you consider the small packages in which baking power is retailed and the purpose for which it is used, this looms up at once as one of the biggest shipments that ever came this way. It is not often that you find half the number of cars containing any one commodity, in one shipment as was in this baking powder train. And it was all in Southern Railway cars.

One car going to Norfolk, was consigned to Woodard & Goodridge. Three to Wilmington, one to Worth & Worth, one to Stevenson & Taylor, and one to Holmes & Walters.

The Southern is to be congratulated in securing the large haul. It may be very properly termed a streak—27 cars long—of "Good Luck."

DON'T "THINK" HE IS THE MAN.

The Negro George Jones Makes Some Conflicting Statements.

Officer Jeffries left this morning for Raleigh with George Jones, the negro who claimed to have been robbed here a few nights ago.

It is thought that he is the negro wanted in Raleigh for robbing a store. He claims he is not the man, but admits that the description fits him closely. He told an officer here that he did not stop in Raleigh as he came here. At another time he told the same officer that he had been working in Raleigh at a livery stable, saying that was where he earned the money which was stolen from him by an unknown party in Greensboro.

Jones admits that at the time he claims to have been robbed he was very drunk and that he might have lost the money. It is also learned that at one time he claimed his name was Johnson. He told the reporter this morning he "didn't think he was the man wanted in Raleigh."

His conflicting statements do not add very materially to the probability of his innocence.

J. N. Longest, the contractor, with his family, returned yesterday, where, with W. C. Bain, also of this city, he has built and has now under construction a large number of new houses. We learn that his family will remain here, and Mr. Longest will return tomorrow to Pinehurst to look after his work.
